Methane content (2023)	39.6%
Energy in the gas	167.9 MMBtu per hour
Power at a heat rate of 11,000 Btu/kWh	about 15.3 MW
Compute (power less cooling and losses, /1.2)	about 12.7 MW
Compute modules (about 1 MW each)	14
Gas engines (running plus one spare)	6 at 3.3 MW
Land: 5 acres plus 1.2 acres per MW	about 23 acres
Gas bought per year (95% run time)	1,397k MMBtu
Gas payment, up to $3.00/MMBtu	up to $4.19M
Land lease at $1,000 to $2,000 per acre per year	$23k to $47k

Landfill gas: about 1,012 Btu per cubic foot of methane. Prices in US dollars; the price band is the one shown on our Site model page.

WHAT IT WOULD LOOK LIKE

- Our own gas engines on a fenced parcel near the gas, a battery to smooth the load, and factory-built compute modules leased to an AI company.
- No grid connection and no export: all of the power is used on site.
- We build and run the site. The owner puts in no capital.
- Multi-year gas and land agreements, matched to the tenant's lease, at a fixed price.

WORTH CHECKING

- Gas rights and any existing gas agreement
- Florida DEP air construction permit (Chapter 62-210)
- Tie-in under the landfill's Title V permit (NSPS Subpart XXX, NESHAP Subpart AAAA)
- County or municipal zoning for the data hall

Source: EPA Greenhouse Gas Reporting Program, 2023: about 13,125 scfm collected at 39.6% methane. EPA Landfill Methane Outreach Program: about 6,912 scfm flared in 2022 beside the turbine plant (about 4.6 MW average in 2025, EIA). This is an estimate from public data, not an offer: no cost and no obligation. The real price and terms are set in the gas and land agreements after a site review.
